

LAZENBY & ASSOCIATES, INC. WARRANTY POLICY

All products sold are new (except as specifically noted) and are covered by the manufacturers warranty. Lazenby & Associates, Inc. will assist with any warranty returns but any return is subject to the policies of the manufacturer and the manufacturers decision is final. See manufacturers site for specific policy details or request a current copy and one will be provided for you.

Occasionally we will have a demonstrator or trade in model available for sale. Warranty policy on such sales is 90 days. Any such product returned will either be replaced with the same model of demonstrator/used equipment , repaired or refunded. Final determination of which is most appropriate will be by Lazenby & Associates, Inc.

Manufacturers Warranties

We have posted some manufacturers warranty statements on some of the products we offer for sale. Please note that this information was as up to date as possible when posted but it is subject to change without notice. The manufacturers warranty policy in place at the time of purchase will be the policy applied to any warranty return.

PRIVACY POLICY

Lazenby & Associates, Inc. will not sell or distribute any information obtained by completing our request for literature section. Purchases are managed through PayPal and Lazenby & Associates, Inc. does not handle any of the credit card data provided with the purchase. We reserve the right to contact you by phone, fax, email or snail mail to provide current product offerings. Should you choose not to receive any subsequent mailings please contact us in writing to be removed from the list. We will make every effort to accede to your request.